

It has come to my attention that stations like Airl may not be allowed to continue to serve the listeners in my area because of possible changes to the regulations. This would not be good for many people in this area that are looking for an alternative to the current choices that we have. This station allows people to listen to a positive message. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.